Who is eligible for Certified Peer Specialist services?

All mental health consumers who are at least 18 years of age and reside in Allegheny County may apply for Certified Peer Support services.

How can a Certified Peer Specialist help me in my recovery journey?

A Certified Peer Specialist will help you empower yourself to lead a richer and healthier life. They will do so by offering support; sharing resources; developing goals and most importantly- walking along side you on your recovery Journey.

If you are interested in receiving Certified Peer Support services or have any questions, please discuss with your provider or call:
